Solution to April 2006 mindbender

The bear-faced truth

The only place on earth from which every direction is North is the South Pole, so that is where Wimpish took his holiday. Due to the curved surface of the earth, if you start from the North Pole and walk South, due East and then due North, you will return to the North Pole. You can perform the same trick if you start a little over 10 miles North of the South Pole, walk 10 miles South, walk 10 miles in a circle round the South Pole – which makes an exact number of complete circuits of the Pole – and then return 10 miles north to your starting point. However, there are no bears in Antarctica, so Tuffer must have holidayed at the North Pole. Polar bears inhabit this region and so the colour of the bear was white.
