

The HellermannTyton

Mindbender?

Subtle subtraction

Brandon was doing his English homework, or rather he was getting his father to do it for him.
 "There were 25 birds in a field, and all but five of them flew away. How many were left?" he called out.
 "20, off course," replied his father, without looking up.
 Tommy wrote down "20" and the next day he got a black mark. What is the correct answer?
